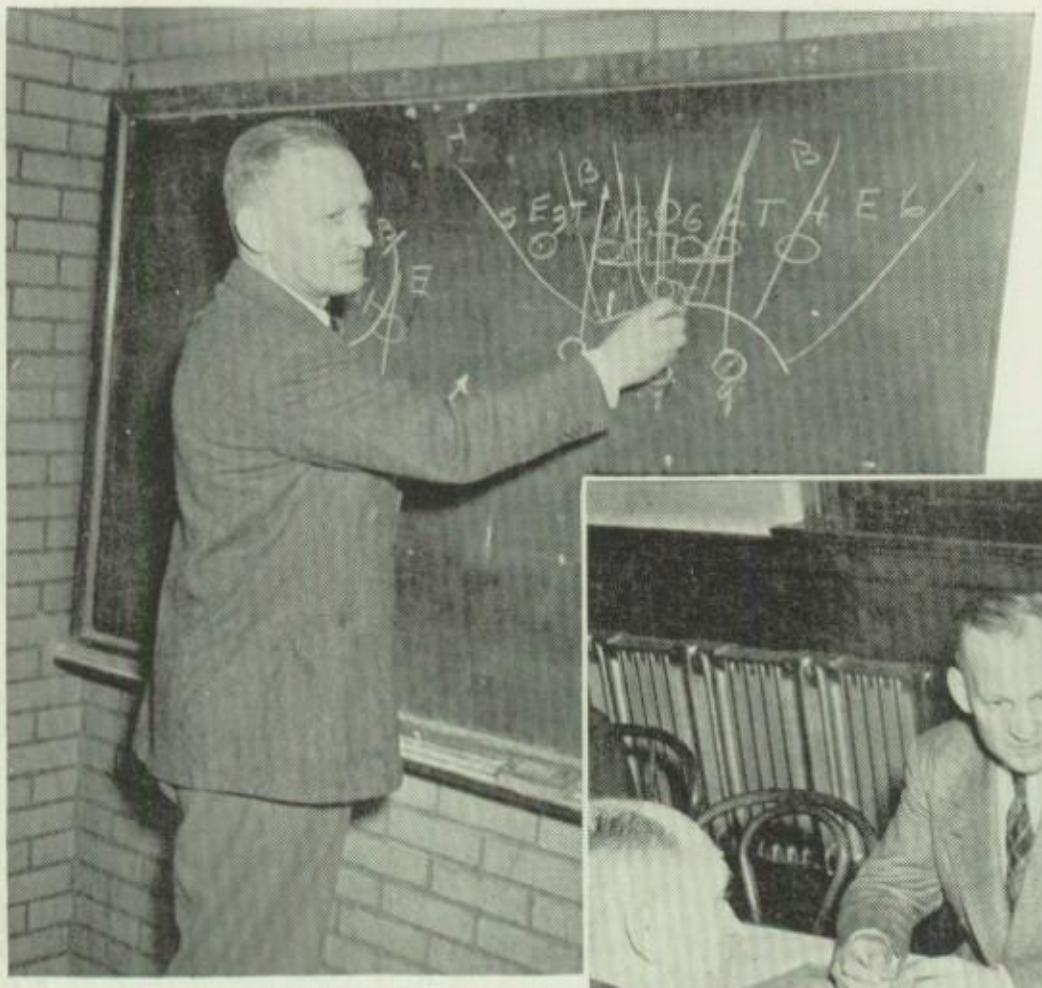
The Echoes of 1947

Edited by the Senior Classes

WARREN G. HARDING SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

WARREN, OHIO



To MR. J. O. (HEINIE) BECK

Supervising Head-Football Coach

In this dedication, the senior classes affectionately honor a fine gentleman. He has whole-heartedly served the best athletic interests of our city schools these many years. Right proud we are that our "Heinie" Beck was selected this year to be President of The Ohio High School Coaches' Association.

My name is Sleuthy Saberlo Todo, taken from the Spanish — it means "know it all." Well, that seems to about fit me. Last September I was officially assigned to Harding to find out the likes and dislikes of the average students. After months of reseach on this difficult subject, I have come to a few conclusions, which I am going to point out in this book. Now, you've all heard of the three monkeys who "see no evil, hear no evil, speak no evil." I'm sort of on that order, except that I see everything, hear everything, and tell everything. Of course, I'm not nosy! It's just that my eyes and ears are so large I can't help seeing and hearing all.

From the very beginning I've kept my flashgun hot, snapping evidence to back up the facts. I've tried to cover every place you hang out, from the classroom to your gang gab-sessions.

Now I am going to lay all the facts and evidence before you—it's up to you to be the judge.

Fall foliage . . .

. . . gives that touch of glamour to terrace and driveway.

Keeping tabs on classes this year was as intricate as a jig-saw puzzle. You see, after twenty-two years of strenuous living, the interior of Harding High needed a face-lifting. Ladders, buckets, and tarpaulins cluttered the hall, and odoriferous smells of paint and varnish permeated the air.

While rooms were in the hands of the beauticians, classes were billeted on the auditorium stage. The students enjoyed (?) the novelty of these temporary living quarters; but great fun it was to move back to a room that had recovered its youth. The walls greeted them in new dresses of buff or green. The desks beamed at them with brightly varnished faces.

Winter Setting

An Old American Custom

Halls of terror well describe the corridors of Harding when the dismissal bell rings. Jujitsu artists compete with champs of the forty-yard dash for the lime-light. I soon learned to squeeze into a corner to keep from being "mowed down" by the stampede of hungry hordes.

But silence and serenity reign while classes are in session, as the picture below testifies.

Fragrance of pine is my favorite perfume. So the Christmas tree that graced the center hall came as a happy surprise. I overheard the decorators (T. Markopoulos and J. Gerald) say that the Booster Club provides such a tree every year.

When the curtains opened for the Student Council Assembly, I knew I would hear a good speech. A quiet, intelligent-looking man sat next to Dan Cardinal. At many a later assembly I heard this same Mr. Turner tell a story so well that he gave the students good thoughts to carry with them through the day.

In conference . . .

. . . are Clerk-Treas. Mabel C. Wolfe, Supt. H. B. Turner, and Bus. Mgr. L. O. Wurtemberger.

A friendly chat . . .

. . . with E. Bevan and A. Fisher is characteristic of Joe Ross, a member of the Board, for he is the well-liked Boys' Secretary at the Y.M.C.A.

Bring on the aspirin . . .

. . . for balancing the budget of the Warren City Schools is conducive to headaches. Board of Education members are H. D. Sullivan, Pres. George W. Secrest, Charles Gaffey, V. Pres. John J. Mahannah.

Don't be deceived . . .

. . . These devotees of the sciences are not collecting specimens; nor are they puttering in their garden. In the classroom Raymond M. Crawford and Harold C. Hulme teach Zoology and Botany respectively; but at the faculty picnic their assignment is heap big chefs. That tub of fish they mean to fry. The "glads" will grace the tables.

Those smiles . . .

. . . are not from being well-fed, for we (Bangert and Seeley and S.S.T.) shot this gang before the call to dinner. Naturally Margaret Eaton would have correct posture. (She teaches Physical Education.) Her pal, Grace Crawford, is the indispensable lady in the office. Dwight B. Lafferty maneuvers his proteges through Commercial Geography and Basketball tactics. Anne Bosso and Stella Totten are office assistants. (The latter later left to attend Kent State.)

Apple-pie a la mode . . .

. . . rates as the favorite picnic dessert. No, they didn't bake them; but they did help to keep those fish frying. On the table are perched Besse L. Tubaugh (English) and Florence M. Newton (Math). Benched are: Eleanor Jewell (Journalism), Martha V. Harnar (Home Ec.), Mrs. Marjorie B. Nilson (American History), Ida Davis (substitute in Home Ec.).

Place your X . . .

. . . in the box urged the Hi-Eco-Sy in this large reproduction of the ballot. Every club, class, and group in the school had a float in the All-City parade. Riding on the gaily bedecked truck were: rear—M. Pickstone, L. Pernice, L. Kordes. J. Laderer; front—E. Nolfi, G. Roszpopa, T. Markopoulos.

Comparisons are odious . . .

. . . but behold the above statistics: they are definitely putrid. These backers of the November tax levy paraded with the Hallowe'en revelers: rear—J. Kilkenny; front—H. Ritchey, B. Dahlen, B. Harcarik, J. Gibson, S. Franks.

Did you students help put over the biggest parade this city ever witnessed! "Things will sizzle when Warren sees the facts," said "Mollie." And sizzle they did. Teachers too worked like beavers with the Citizens' Committee to publicize the necessity for VOTING YES on both issues.

Mr. Scheig had every pupil in the city singing Helen Ritchey's version of "Give Me A Little Kiss, Will You, Huh?"

I love a parade

Give us a little room, will ya, huh?

Now if you don't, it's doom; will ya, huh?

Gosh, oh gee, we could learn a lot

If we had the rooms we haven't got.

Come open up your hearts, purses too;

Give us some help, and we'll come through.

You've heard no doubt the story about Jack, the poor dull boy.

Please give us recreation and a little bit of joy.

So give us a little help, will ya, huh?

And we'll show you what we can do.

Cycling to victory . . .

. . . are the 11A Class boosters with their red and white decorated two-wheelers. Here they await the take-off while other groups meet in the fair-grounds.

Read all about it . . .

. . . in the special eight-page edition of "High Life." Students turned news-boys when they delivered to each home the 15,000 copies of the school paper. This splendid journalistic effort featured both the May Bond Levy and Novem-ber Tax Issue campaigns.

Big chief . . .

. . . Miss Jewell and her faithful crew learn the meaning of devotion to a cause as they fold the huge piles of "High Life". Hard at work are: (left to right) P. Marvin, S. Dutro, J. Braun-berns, Miss Jewell, B. Balson, R. A. Brooks, A. J. Ford, V. Grinta.

More cellos and bass viols . . .

. . . answered to roll call this year. This pleased Director Scheig and his musicians mightily. Here they perform for a Forum audience.

Working in oils . . .

. . . are D. Weaver, G. Heitman, and B. Baker. Posters, cartoons, and dress designs keep paint brushes busy in the art classes.

Open the door, Richard!

To the key-hole of many a door, I glued my ear. Was a riot brewing? Now keep calm. Investigation proved the noises to be legitimate—confusion with a purpose, as you might say.

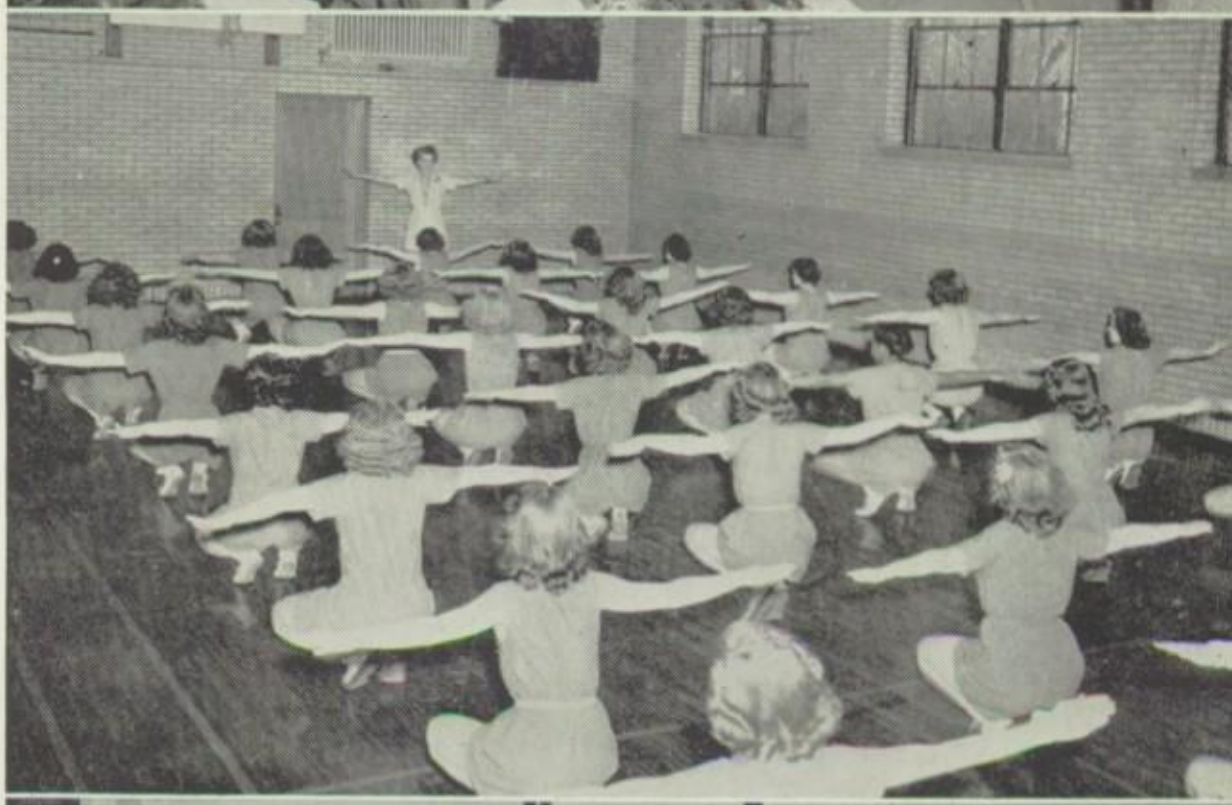
I expect it's natural for youth to like to buzz around, whether it's racing the old Singer in school or the old Buick out of school. At any rate, it's safe to declare that the class is popular which includes plenty of Physical Activity. (That reminds me—the teachers admitted that the Welcome mat is always out for Mental Activity.)

Racing in a time-test . . .

. . . fingers fly, bells ring, as these typing students strive for a perfect copy.

Flight formation . . .

. . . is the effective result of a deep-knee-bend command in girls' gym class. Pretty, Miss Eaton, 'aint it?



Foamy white-sauce . . .

. . . is being concocted in this Foods II class. Since baking cakes was curtailed by sugar shortage, biscuits and bread secured the lime-light this year.

The operational method . . .

. . . teaches every process, from the straight turn and turning to a shoulder to recessing, angular turning, boring, and threading. Then the boys are ready for tool-making projects.

A photogenic bunch . . .

. . . like the one at the bottom left pleases Bangert mightily. Shoulder to shoulder are Miles Dearth (Physics), Ruth LaPolla (History), Geraldine Kerr (Library), Mrs. Elsie M. Mathews (Commercial). On bended knee are Donald MacEwan (Math.) and Ivan E. Massar (Chemistry).

When day is done . . .

. . . they climb into the "old" Pontiac, Ford, or Buick (?) and whiz away: Lorene Troxell (Math.), Margaret Woodland (Latin), Edith Paddack (English), Doris Malmsberry (Business English), and Gertrude Lynn (Problems).

Time out for a chat . . .

. . . during lunch hour for the group pictured at the bottom (middle). In the rear are Charles F. Corlett (Band), J. G. Hickox (Testing), Leona Deemer (Math.); front are Julia Czibula (Office), Joanne Ward (Office), and Mrs. Elizabeth Cross (Librarian).

One moment, ladies, please! . . .

. . . and so this sextet (bottom right) genially poses for another informal shot of faculty members. Leaning on the trestle are Dorothy E. Hart (World History), Mrs. Josephine Thoman (English), Velma E. Hartman (Math.), Mrs. Clara K. Webb (Latin), and Emily L. Kaufman (English). In front is Esther Tubaugh (English).

While old-man Sun . . .

. . . was hard on the eyes, these teachers enjoyed its warm rays one autumn day as they hashed over football and teachers' salaries. You know them to be Jesse O. Beck (Football Coach), Mary Duck (Testing), Frank E. Harnar (Commercial Geography), Edward J. Campbell (Physical Education).

Far from the madding crowd . . .

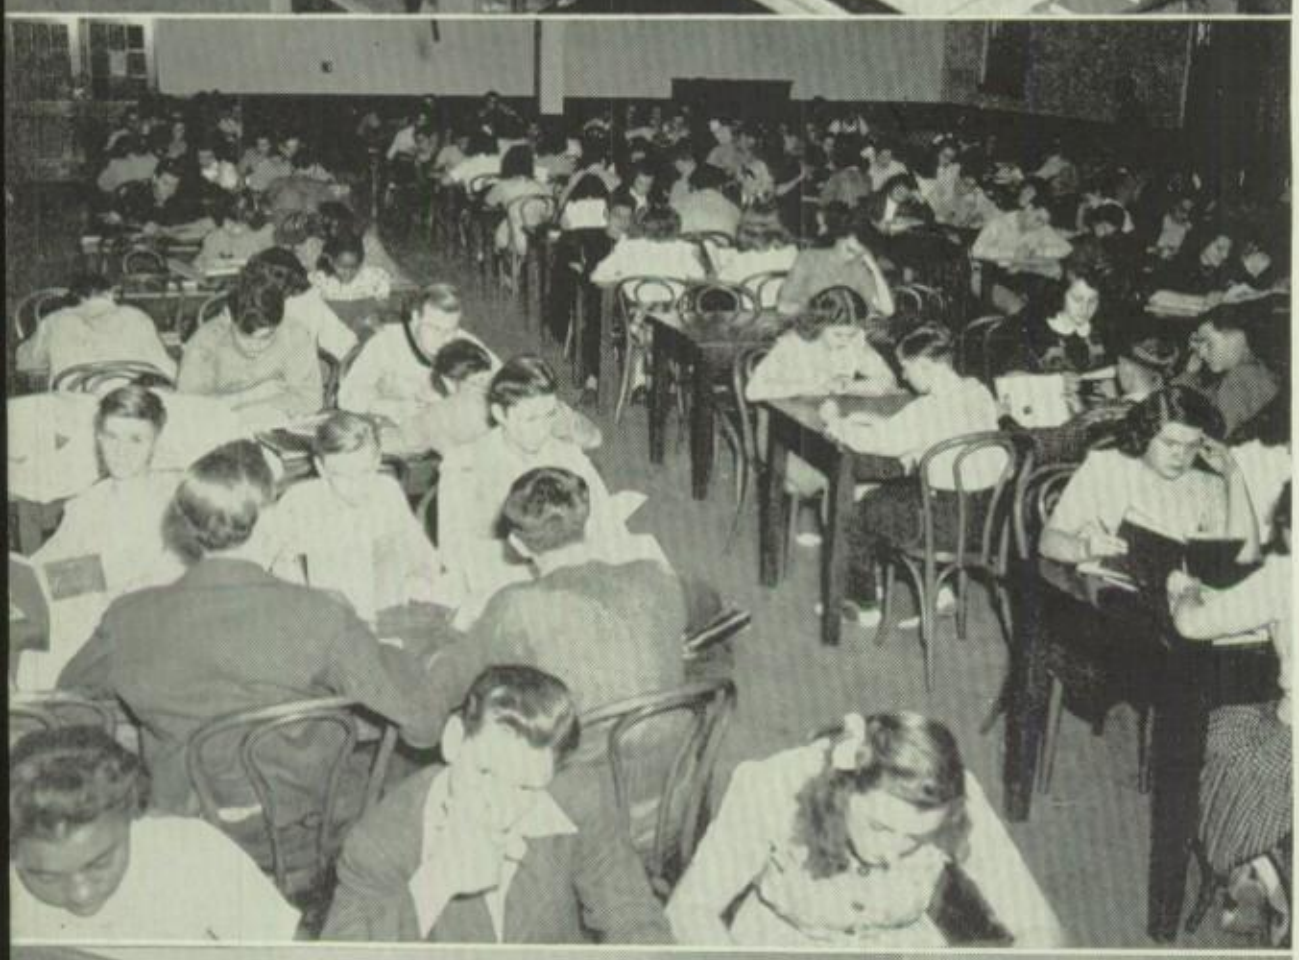
. . . they relaxed at Liberty Park (the setting of the picnic). Standing: Mrs. Kathryn McCurdy (French), Harry H. Taft (Math.), Margaret Dennison (English); seated: Ruth A. Partridge (English), Harold H. Hetzler (Spanish), Ruth L. Reager (English).

Margaret Dennison

Now I select from a busy school day samples of classroom procedure and achievement that win the blue-ribbon prize in the estimation of the students.

It satisfies . . .

. . . when a teacher who knows his subject can put it across in a friendly fashion. Here Mr. Gass, mechanical drawing instructor, gives some fine points in the technique of inking.



The big sleep . . .

. . . characterizes the quietness of study hall, but brains literally rattle away as homework assignments are completed. Mr. Ball's "guard duty" might have something to do with those better grades.

Chicken scratches? . . .

. . . Heavens, no! It's merely Mrs. Thoman's English class in a diagraming session. Students like graphic and visual aids to learning.

Sitting pretty . . .

. . . are these woodshop boys who can take home their master-pieces (lawn chairs). Those enjoying the tangible "comforts" of their education are: J. Myers, J. Thomas, J. Lipscomb, G. Roszpopa, G. Zerefos, F. Serrino, A. Callion, and S. Dulaney.

Learn by doing . . .

. . . is the motto of office practice students. Cutting a stencil is the problem at hand for D. Vernarsky, D. Le Master, D. Lowry, S. Graham, Miss Kensy, and P. Levanos.

"Of Lab I Sing" . . .

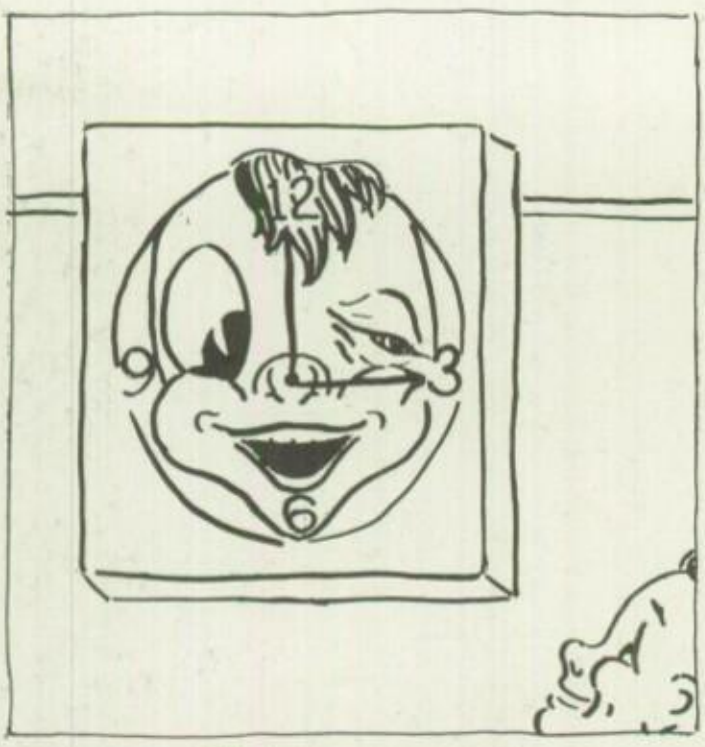
. . . Here R. Moore, D. Biliuris, J. Bundas, and R. Shape destructively distill coal and wood and collect the gases thereby produced. By-products of this process are valuable to the industrial world.

Flag-pole sitting . . .

. . . is just one more accomplishment of these versatile staff members. The sitters are Marguerite Wright (Physical Education), Eugenia Vlad (Cafeteria Director), Alice M. Porter (Civics), John Denovchek (Music). Flanking the sitters are (left) Donald Baker (Physical Education), Lewis J. Kemp (Speech and Athletics), and (right) Albert W. Marowitz (Social Studies).

A veritable fairyland . . .

. . . exists in room 103 because of the display of polyhedrons and other geometrical figures constructed by the students. Here Allie M. Chalker (Math) points to a few on the shelves of a what-not.



That happy moment

HOW'S YOUR IQ?

1. How many people are on the faculty?
2. Which faculty member has the most children?
3. When was the corner-stone of Harding High laid?
4. Who designed the new class ring?
5. Which class has held an annual reunion ever since graduation?
6. In which year did only one person graduate?
7. What was the average height of the varsity basketball players this year?
8. When will the new stadium be erected?

(answers on page 25)

Any wise-crack . . .

. . . of Kraker's is always good for a laugh, as you can see. The gentlemen in the rear are Kenneth L. Kraker (Woodshop), Merrill F. Cooley (Business English), George E. Nickel (Machine Shop), John Maurer (U. S. History). Those seated are William P. Sullivan (Commercial), William B. Gass (Mechanical Drawing), Kenneth D. Weber (Physiology and Athletics).

Bring on the tea-cups . . .

. . . "What's a party without eats!" declare Helen M. Ridgley (American Literature), Donald Fusselman (Art), G. Glenn Ball (American History), James Scobie (Commercial), and Edna E. Baxter (Clothing).

Our newest instructor . . .

. . . is welcomed by Mrs. Ruth J. Van Metre (Math.) and Carl F. Scheig (A Cappella and Orchestra). The fledgling (on the right) is Dorothy Kennedy (Home Ec.).

Perched on the balustrade . . .

. . . in regular collegiate fashion are Louis Hyde (Math.), Augusta I. Barrick (Speech), Louise J. Kensy (Commercial), and Joel T. Yost (Bookkeeping). Out in front are Mrs. Agnes Knox (English), Mrs. Dorothy Wiseman (Social Studies), and Winifred Waters (Home Management).

Enthusiastic support is guaranteed any venture that breaks up the monotony of daily class-room procedure. For instance:

What a beautiful morning . . .

. . . when these nature lovers of botany classes participate in a field trip. To be sure, they collect specimens; and Mr. Hulme contributes an added interest by "shooting" the specimens, too. In the picture are (standing) Mr. Hulme, J. Sunderman, C. Csehill, R. Harcarik, (kneeling) D. Recser, J. Rudge, K. Totten.

A new angle . . .

. . . comes into view as Miss Chalker's "trig." class invades the main hall. The final result is one of those curves that throw you on an icy highway. J. Atkin and A. Calcin record the findings of (front to rear) D. Geaman, T. Hernon, and W. Stormer.

Higher and higher . . .

. . . this little fellow builds his tower, oblivious of gaping students from Miss Lynn's problems classes. (The students are screened from view). During their visit to Central Kindergarten and Nursery Schools these sleuthies observe the behavior of pre-school children and the psychology used in training them.

Confucius say . . .

. . . the Elephant and the Donkey really have a "free-for-all" in Mr. Marowitz's civics classes. These partisans present the platforms (and promises) of the candidates for office in the November election. K. Jones orates for Thomas Herbert, while M. Cook, D. Knox, J. Rudge, R. Earich, N. Mumaw, and R. Stebbin await their turns.

Hallowe'en hangover? . . .

. . . No, it's Miss Dennison's class in a production of "You Can't Take It With You." This slap-happy family is portrayed by J. Onder (Grandfather throwing darts), R. Lillie (the iceman who moved in), D. Cribbs (artist), P. Dymond (ballet dancer), and P. Eddy (actress).

Assemblies . . .

. . . wise and otherwise receive hearty applause. An explosive take-off of the forth-coming parent-student night-school session is featured in this Booster Club football rally. When these lab experts combine HCl and NH_4OH, the reaction is immediate and hair-raising. The technicians are M. Massar, R. Haner, B. Sandy, W. Seeley, C. Weber, and R. Stevens.

Although all students of Harding are allergic to certain phases of class room by-products, Dr. F. A. Culty seems to be of the opinion that these allergies are unavoidable; so the boys and girls just groan and moan and submit to the inevitable.

That day of reckoning . . .

. . . six weeks' grades via the REPORT CARD. Comparing the results are V. Russell, C. Utt, D. Harris, T. Coleman, and V. Grinta.

Calling all hands . . .

. . . to help carry home those books which spell HOMEWORK. Laboring under their burdens are W. Weaver, P. Marvin, B. Kistler, and P. Weaver.

Come on, brains . . .

. . . give out with those Latin idioms. EXAMS ever dog our foot-steps. In the picture Mrs. Webb watches over her Caesar group.

Life can be beautiful . . .

. . . yet that one minute of tardiness can send one to 101 for one hour of repentance. As Miss O'Rourke assigns DETENTION, the culprits (guess who) resolve, "Never again."

More Fun! More People Killed!

When the faculty acts cuckoo to help put across some school shindig, the students readily forget their gripes of the opposite page.

Come on, gang . . .

. . . yell these "faskinatin' " cheer-leaders. Underneath bows and beanies are Nilson, Swart, Lafferty, Massar, and Newton.

With "swing yer partners" . . .

. . . teachers gallop into their lively Frolics act. Gay Nineties costumes and handlebar mustaches send the audience rolling in the aisle. Paired off are (in rear) Eaton and Harnar, Reager and Massar, McCurdy and MacEwan, Knox and Swart, (in front) Baxter and Hickox, Harnar and "Mollie", Barrick and Kemp, Baker and Nilson.

Can you picture . . .

. . . all the faculty and their families at the picnic performing the monkey antics of these "nuts"? The "nuts is" Harnar, Massar, and Cooley. The lunatic on the right is Yost.

Inspirational . . .

. . . are the morning devotionals broadcast to all homerooms. Here L. Graves reads the thought for the day, while D. Arnold controls the board. Miss Barrick prepares the program and coaches the participants.

All students visit the polls on Class Election Day. Class business gradually builds up in the eleventh grade until it reaches Big Business proportions in the senior year.

Officials . . .

. . . of the January Class of 1947 led the Seniors to a dignified finale: Miss Jewell, 5; R. Nussle, 3; J. Rogers, 2; J. Robison, 4; P. Wilson, 1; Mr. Nickel, 5.

Judged by their leaders . . .

. . . the January Class of 1949 ought to accomplish big things at Harding High: Mrs. Wiseman, 5; R. Jones, 1; M. Grdinich, 2; E. Cless, 4; J. Mills, 3; Mr. Hulme, 5.

Spring Festival . . .

. . . is in the offing for these potentates of the January Class of 1948: Mr. Hyde, 5; H. Astolfi, 3; M. Carlett, 2; Miss Dennison, 5; (in front) G. Rowley, 1; R. Ziegler, 4.

Mighty proud . . .

. . . were these tenth graders to be elected to head the June Class of 1949: D. Ford, 1; D. Schaefer, 2; D. Buxton, 4; P. Carter, 3.

School days are here again . . .

. . . for these returned vets. Through a testing program, supervised by Miss Duck, 72 service men and women received diplomas in August, 1946; and 103 in January, 1947. (The number in June was not available at the time of publication.)

Spotlight Review . . .

. . . "Anne of Green Gables" and her cohorts show how thrilled they were over their stage hit. Here they relax after their second big night in the January Senior Play production: (rear) V. Kush (Mrs. Allen), B. Wilson (Mrs. Barry), P. Swab (Miss Remsen), E. Carson (Minnie Stearn), D. Arnold (Moody Spurgeon); (second row) C. Jones (Mrs. Spencer), T. Hernon (Mathew), S. Kelly (Anne), B. Loughrie (Diana), V. Stafford (Marilla), R. Scofield (Ira Mills); (front) D. Patton (Gilbert), M. Burrows (Josie), G. Voit (Mrs. Lynde). Miss Ruth Reager directed the play.

It's a draw!

The two senior classes strike a happy balance between good-natured rivalry and active co-operation.

PLENTY of energy . . .

. . . was salvaged from the 12B Rally to waltz over to the Harding gym for a hot session of jive.

A gay senior crowd . . .

. . . tripped up The Stairway to the Stars at the January Prom. The architects at work are J. Kerr, W. Manofsky, and Mr. Campbell.

"Let's hit it . . .

. . . and show those 12A's how to yell," shouted R. Lewis, 12B Rally Master at the all-out campaign against Canton McKinley.

Tired Massillon Tiger . . .

. . . was carried out of the picture (during 12A Rally) by J. Rogers and P. Wilson. An "ugh" of approval was grunted by the Indian stooges, R. Tounshendeaux, R. Nussle, J. Shamrock.

The Big Top gave a tip-top performance at the Warren-New Castle football game. This half-time affair was supervised by the W.H.S. Band, while others joined in for the fun.

Jump the loop . . .

. . . was one of the clever tricks done by our team mascot, Frisky. The crowd was always impressed by the way the little canine obeyed his mistress, M. Humes.

Heels over head . . .

. . . tramped the "Upside Downy" man (J. Hrecz) as he followed the commands of Ring-Master J. Raftus. The crowd roared as he toppled past the reviewing stand.

2 plus 2 . . .

. . . Well, what's the answer? D. Osborne displays her patience as she performs the difficult task of teaching "Jitter Joe" (R. Kramer and F. Shape) his math.

In the groove . . .

. . . was that dancing giraffe (E. DiGiacobbe and D. Christy). Stepping lively with the act was the instructor, C. Williamson.

I crown thee queen

The Juniors are in the swim, too.

Spring Festival honors . . .

. . . of 1946 are worn graciously by May Queen M. Knapik. Her attendants are L. Lund and L. Graves.

Wacky fiddlin' . . .

. . . in the Jack Benny style had nothing on J. Wishart at the Mix.

Promoters of the Exchequer . . .

. . . faithfully sold football programs. This crew includes (rear) L. Perica, I. Byland, T. Russell, D. Hosch, T. Kordes, M. McLaughlin; (front) J. James, S. Huyvan, K. Brown, M. Green, A. Sherman.

Song Smith Trio . . .

. . . was on the Hit Parade at the Mix. Did you know their names are Orman, Fred, and Norman?

Whether it's a dance, a play, a football game, or office work, there is always a bunch of you making things "tick." You certainly deserve gold medals for good citizenship.

Hourly routine . . .

. . . check-up on "the missing" is engineered by A. Tsagaris and H. Geordan.

Hard work . . .

. . . cannot scare the home economics girls who faithfully serve at all our teas and banquets. The two on the job here at Parents Night Session are M. Hlywiak and M. Rimer.

White collar gals . . .

. . . of our office first semester were: (front) Miss O'Rourke, D. Carr, S. Renner, P. Dymond, H. Ritchey, B. Douce; (second row) M. Baughman, B. Ahart, S. Gergel, R. Young, V. Meeker, M. Latimer; (rear) M. Humes, S. Mumford, M. Miller, A. Tsagaris, Mr. Swart, H. Geordan.

At the controls . . .

. . . are these lads of the stage crew for Frolics, Forums, and what-have-you: J. Hillyer, (stooping) R. Jones, R. Moore, W. Lovett.

Fads flourish at Harding.

Hot dog!

Break a bone . . .

. . . and ride the elevator advocate these boys with the big smiles: G. Daugherty, J. Dunwoody, R. White, E. Bevan, J. Martz, and J. Smedi. Many fellows joined The White Bandage Brotherhood last fall.

Letters and symbols . . .

. . . adorn club sweaters and jackets. The sixty-four dollar question is, "What does each represent?" Proudly standing-up for his own club are P. Boyd, M. Spanakis, M. L. Johnson, L. Schier, J. Laderer, S. Kelly, D. Hirsch, A. Calcin.

Seeing double . . .

. . . your eyes say, and right they are, as these sweethearts (rear) J. Irby—R. Jones, J. Hall—N. Wagy, J. Davies—J. Jingo, (front) J. Hallett—E. Hatch, N. Silliman—P. Dennis pose in their twin sweaters.

Mirror, mirror, on the wall . . .

. . . plus lip-stick and a comb are "musts" for all "dames". Here B. Kistler, B. Harris, L. Severson spruce up.

Rushing the line . . .

. . . is a favorite noon pastime.

Sipping cokes . . .

. . . at a gab, music-infested affair, while garbed in jeans and loud plaid shirts, assures any teen-ager of a smooth time. Yes, they are some of the Echoes gang.

The "T's" the thing . . .

. . . R. Stiffler and B. Scofield really started something when they renovated a pile of junk and called it a "T". Hang on, kids!

Motorized division . . .

. . . was something new added by these men from Mars: D. Minnick, N. Williams, D. Bair, R. Jardine, J. Martz, W. Hathoway, B. Bole, W. Nicholas, R. Granfield.

Symptoms of Bookitis

National Teen-Age Book Week, promoted by the Public Library and City and County Schools, made the whole town book-conscious. Thirty store windows were decorated to entice students to engage in a new kind of "Treasure Hunt."

Delving deep . . .

. . . into their "gray matter," R. Stiffler, H. Ritchey, K. Linden, and F. Flowers decide the book title to this window display is "Keys of the Kingdom."

"Les Miserables" . . .

. . . was staged (bottom left) also for the Quiz Kids in the Book Assembly. N. Silliman, P. Schmidt, S. Schultheis, and C. Jones performed the "Bishop's Candlesticks" episode.

Top rank . . .

. . . was gained by R. Yencer, D. Wilson, J. Hansel, N. Eliades, and H. Gluck in the final judging of the poster contest.

Strictly from Broadway . . .

. . . a scene from "Anna and the King of Siam" was presented by R. Chaffee and J. Bourekis to "pep-up" participation in the book contest.

Harding frequently indulges in the American plan of promoting causes through competitive enterprises. So-o-o, I found contests galore.

Wings away . . .

. . . as the lucky winners of the Air Mail Week poster contest board the plane for Detroit. This trip was a wonderful prize for E. Pape and W. Manofsky.

Lena-the-Hyena . . .

. . . posters were enough to send chills up and down anyone's spine. I wonder how winners, S. Huyvan, J. Kahn, N. Monte Calvo, dreamed up such horrible creatures.

One more vote . . .

. . . was the plea in the essays that won cash prizes for these lucky five: H. Flowers, J. Rinda, J. Gerald, D. McGrew, and R. Burdock.

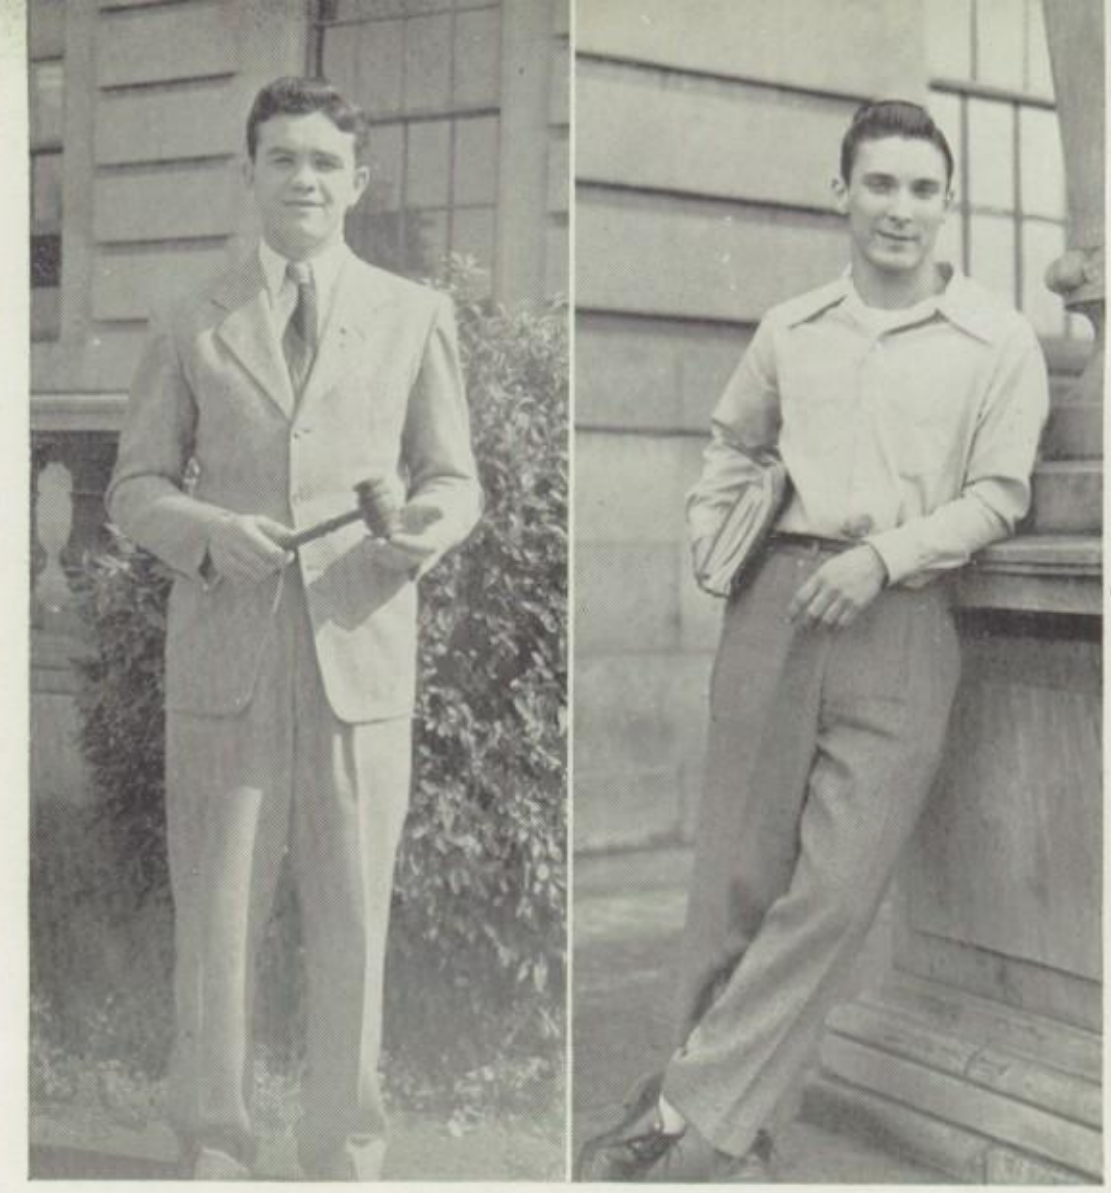
Some climb!

You like to give recognition where it is due. I've seen a lot of hard-working students round these parts—and I also found it pays off when the honors are passed out.



As President of Student Council . . .

. . . D. Cardinal (left) assumed the position of leadership with a simple diginity that won the confidence of all. C. Schier (right) served as president twelve weeks of the second semester. Upon his resignation, Richard Bangert was elected by the student body to fill the unexpired term.

Spring elections to Honor Society: 12A—Jane Atkin, Jean Atkin, Mary Cook, June Dager, Lois Graves, Doris Kibler, Joanne Laderer, Betty Lewis, Nancy Lewis, Marilyn Meeker, Virginia Meeker, Norma Mumaw, Harriet Narotsky, Mary Nilson, Donna Osborne, Norma Render, Sarah Renner, Mary Lou Rhinebarger, Lotus Roth, Demetria Simon, Rosie Simon, Geraldine Taylor, Sylvia Voyiazis, Jane Williams; 12B—Kevert Bean, Carolyn Clark, Dorothy Criddle, Nancy Dakin, Joan Hallett, Rodger Moore, Dorothy Moran, Virginia Roberts, Ruth Shape, Donald Stiggers; 11A—John Beck, James Bourekis, Kenneth Brown, Lois Chinnock, Stella Gergel, Sophia Huyvan, Thomas Kordes, Richard Knox, Martha McLaughlin, Louis Perica, Arnold Sherman, Chester Sours, Betty Spahr, Jeanne Wishart.

Top-notchers . . .

. . . of the January Class were O. Johnson, R. Summerhays, and B. Pearle.

A toast to the ladies . . .

. . . of the June Class who captured class honors: M. Hillman, M. J. Thoman, A. M. Schaible, J. Rinda, and N. Klingensmith.

Guiding hand . . .

. . . is extended by the SPONSORS AND PRESIDENTS to all clubs. Planning the Activity Ticket budget and generally supervising "the works" is its job.

The Harding gang is always on the ball when it comes to backing a community service program.

Toys and joys . . .

. . . are sent to the needy children of Europe through our Junior Red Cross Council. The student body donated enough soap, pencils, etc., to fill 277 boxes. Caught packin' are D. Ford, R. Brooks, and B. Balson.

Full speed ahead . . .

. . . when M. Pickstone and J. Laderer hitch a ride with Firemen J. Pietila and J. Simpson. It's all a part of a social studies project. Each spring members of Hi-Eco-Sy take over all city offices for the day.

Forests of tomorrow . . .

. . . are assured us by conservation-minded lads of the PIONEER CLUB. These fellows planted 1500 trees at the Arboretum near Vienna. In the picture are (standing) C. Hogan, B. Semple, Mr. Mollenkopf, G. Lebrun, C. Matea, L. Munnell, C. Athya; (kneeling) L. Galpin, T. Thomas, J. Baker.

Drives for funds . . .

. . . are handled by Student Council. This year the students contributed to Community Chest, March of Dimes, Arboretum, Sister Kenny, and Tuberculosis Funds. The picture shows some leaders of the Community Chest Campaign: Mrs. Knox, R. Kramer, H. Dun, and D. Cardinal.

Dig deep, brother

Mock-election day . . .

. . . at W. H. S. coincides with the regular election day of U.S.A. As the Nation and State and City went last November, so went Harding. In the picture, Hi-Eco-Sy members, M. E. Pernice, S. Whitman, and T. Markopoulos, hand out ballots.

It's mother-son night . . .

. . . when D. Knox of Speakers Bureau and Mrs. Knox of W. H. S. faculty take the platform at Garfield P.T.A. as campaigners for the School Bond Levy.

News flashes . . .

. . . over WRRN to the citizens of Warren as K. Byard and N. Dakin of the Journalism Department participate in the weekly broadcast of Harding High events.

Portal-to-portal pay . . .

PIGSKIN SUMMARY

Football is certainly popular with Warren citizens. Enthusiastic fans fought for seats last fall.

At the beginning of the season, Coach J. O. Beck tried a combination of discharged Army-Navy veterans and players with 1945 experience. The results were not too encouraging.

Warren had to be satisfied with the short end of the score against a powerful Memorial team. W. Corbin skirted right end early in the first quarter for Warren's first tally. G. Pulca added the extra point from placement, and Warren led, 7-0. In the fourth quarter, Matosky raced around left end for the first Memorial touchdown. His try for the extra point was wide. With the score 7-6, and one minute to play, Matosky completed a pass to Chwalik on Warren's 10 yard line. The giant right end galloped the remaining distance for what proved to be the margin of victory.

Akron Garfield, Rubber City Champions, succeeded in keeping their slate clean by defeating the Presidents, 7-0. Warren, led by G. Pulca and W. Corbin, drove to the Garfield 23 early in the first period, but their line held. After an exchange of punts, Warren punted to Gibson, who fumbled on his own 19, and M. Bassett recovered the pigskin for Warren. Then, late in the second period, Garfield drove to the Warren 2 on passes from Rossi to Gibson. On the fourth down, Gibson skirted Warren's right end for the only score of the game. Rossi kicked the extra point from placement.

Canton McKinley's Bulldogs, practically ran circles around the Presidents. A few minutes after the game started, the McKinley juggernaut drove to Warren's 8 yard line, where All-Ohio R. Pucci scored on a spinner through center. Pucci's conversion was good, and Canton led, 7-0. Half way through the third period, Pucci again scored behind beautiful blocking from the 12 yard line. Pucci's placement was good, and McKinley led, 14-0. In the fourth period, Pucci outran the Warren secondary for a T.D. His extra point was good, making the score 21-0. Spera's 14 yard pass was caught in the fourth quarter by Stevenson on Warren's 16, and the tall right end galloped the rest of the way untouched. W. Corbin, fleet halfback, was lost to the squad for four games because of an injury received in this game.

Coach Beck made a personnel change following the McKinley fray. Playing before an overflowing Homecoming crowd, the Prexies showed one of their finest offensive exhibitions of the season. On the third play of the game, G. Pulca took a lateral from D. Cardinal off T-formation and raced 53 yards to pay dirt. H. Edington's try for the extra point split the uprights, and Warren led, 7-0. In a sustained drive of 80 yards in the second quarter, Youngstown South scored when Gatchett plunged at center. Warren drove 73 yards in the third period and tallied when D. Robison smashed from the 6 yard line on a quarterback sneak. H. Edington's conversion was blocked. With four minutes left in the fourth period, a Warren man blocked a South punt in the end zone for a safety. With the Prexies leading 15-6, A. Pinkney crashed Warren's line for another score.

A rejuvenated squad continued their winning ways by jolting Youngstown Rayen, 20-6. Rayen scored early in the first period on a pass from Markulin to Angelo in the end zone. Warren tied the score in the second period after a down field march of 80 yards. G. Pulca crashed off guard for the score. H. Edington's placement was wide. One of the most unusual plays of the season happened in the third period when Center T. Coleman of Warren took the ball from a Rayen back on an intended reverse and ran the remaining 26 yards for a touchdown. H. Edington's placement split the uprights, and Warren led, 13-6. The final score came on a power-drive late in the fourth quarter when L.

Staggering through . . .

. . . H. Edington, sophomore addition to the squad, registers Warren's only tally against Massillon's powerful Tigers.

Schier, sub-fullback, blasted through right tackle for the tally.

Playing on a mud-covered field, Warren battled the Cleveland Shaw to a 0-0 tie. Both teams were hampered by frequent fumbles. Most of the game was played between the 35 yard lines. G. McCarter, sophomore fullback for Shaw, was outstanding on offense for Shaw, and probably will prove dangerous for Warren teams in the future. W. Corbin returned to the line-up, following a four-week shoulder injury.

Warren invaded Massillon's football stronghold only to fall prey to the powerful Tigers, 19-6. In the first quarter, H. Edington attempted to pass on Warren's 9 yard line, and Massillon linemen swarmed in upon him. He fumbled, the ball bounced high into the air, and Tackle D. Dowd intercepted for Massillon and crossed the goal line. Brown failed at the extra point. Massillon drove to Warren's 7 yard line where Bylene passed to Zeller in the end zone, to make the score 12-0. Brown's placement was good. Late in the third quarter, after a drive of 65 yards, H. Edington crashed Massillon's left end for the score. The final Tiger tally came in the fourth period when Zorger took Brown's pass on Warren's 30 and covered the rest of the distance untouched.

Youngstown Chaney played Warren to a deadlock on a mud-covered field. Chaney drew first blood in the second period, when, after a march of 93 yards, Flora passed to McPhee for the score. Flora's pass to Hura gave Chaney a 7-0 lead. In the fourth period, G. Pulca took a lateral and ran wide to his left and outran the entire Chaney secondary for a spectacular 80 yard jaunt. H. Edington's conversion gave Warren a 7-7 tie.

The Red and White, victorious over the Red Hurricanes for the past five years, did not prove so lucky this time. The two teams battled each other to a tie in a sea of mud during the first half. Warren threatened early in the second period, but the drive ended on New Castle's 31. Soon after the second half began, Pulca's punt was blocked, and New Castle recovered on Warren's 32. Cavelle's pass to Gribble was completed to Warren's one yard line, and Zarone bucked center for the first score of the game. McCoy's placement hit the crossbars. After an exchange of punts, Rowland intercepted W. Bevan's pass on Warren's 35, and the fleet end raced the distance to pay dirt. McCoy's placement was wide.

RESERVE SUMMARY

These Reserve lads made the Warren fans sit up and take notice. Coach L. J. Kemp's "happy warriors" continued their victorious ways by completing their third straight undefeated season.

The Jayvees ran rough-shod over a host of Youngstown teams— Chaney, East, Wilson, and Rayen. With E. Allgood and D. Thompson featuring an offensive, the Reserves launched their season by smothering Chaney, 26-6. In a down-pour of rain, the Jayvees racked up their second straight of the season against an inexperienced East team. E. Allgood, W. Bevan, and D. Thompson carried the pigskin over for the Jayvees.

A thousand fans were on hand to watch E. Allgood display his ability by scoring three touchdowns to lead Warren's Reserves to an 19-6 victory over Woodrow Wilson. Warren's mastery over Youngstown continued as the Reserves blasted Rayen's Junior Varsity all over the lot for a 26-6 triumph. D. Robison and E. Allgood led the J-V offensive.

Warren's Junior Varsity met Youngstown East's Reserves for the second time this season and romped over the invaders, 12-0. J. Smith and E. Allgood tallied for the Red and White.

A record crowd of two thousand fans watched Harding's Reserves end their third perfect season by defeating Newton Falls Varsity, 12-7. J. Smith and D. Thompson, sophomore speedsters, starred for Warren.

Coach J. Beck looks hopefully to the Reserves for material for next year's gridiron squad.

In Memory of

JOSEPH C. KELLEY

. . . by all Harding alumni and students, he was affectionately called "Doc" Kelley.

. . . "his only regret in leaving Warren was that he'd no longer be able to help keep 'his boys' in the best shape possible," wrote his wife, Mrs. Grace Kelley, in a recent letter.

. . . for over one quarter of a century, "Doc" Kelley served athletes of Harding High School by helping them maintain fine physical condition. They considered him their friend, and they were "his boys."

. . . pictures of Harding High athletic stars decked the walls of his office at his place of business. His keen interest kept memories of each boy alive. He said he learned a lot about a boy just from the spirit in which he took an injury or a beating.

. . . the figure of a man in a bulky red coat-sweater with a cap upon his head, sitting on the bench with our football players, appeared as a tradition of each season. The fans and the parents always felt comforted when they saw "Doc" Kelley running out on the field with medical kit and white towel in hand to have a look at the injured player.

The rains came . . .

. . . and the volunteer mop-brigade was requisitioned to "restore" the gridiron, for the games must go on.

The season ended . . .

. . . The Board of Education said, "Enough of wallowing around in mud." So-o-o begins the new drainage project.

Half the attraction for the fans was the show staged between halves. Circus night (pictured on p. 54), patriotic pageants, fireworks, and band formations kept the crowd agog for, "What's next?" Charlie's band instigated and carried through these mid-game maneuvers.

Through the ages . . .

. . . from the Spirit of '76 to World War II, representatives reviewed momentous events in United States history.

Patriotic reminder . . .

. . . was the flag-raising on Mount Surabachi at Iwo Jima re-enacted by P. Schmidt, J. Dunwoody, G. Fram, D. Myers, R. Stiffler, and A. Charnas. This reproduction was repeated at several games.

HOOPSTERS THROUGH THE QUARTERS

Do we need a Field-House or do we? Tightly wedged between fellow-sardines at each game, I was so miserable that I swore I'd not go to the next one, but you know how it is—the b.b. bug had me. And could those fellows hit the hoop?

Although the Presidents' basketball debut of the 1946-47 campaign ended in a 43-24 victory over Cleveland Holy Name, the home netters drew 28 penalties. A tight defense checked the opponents' offensive movements.

A giant five from Cleveland East Tech invaded Harding ground but fell in a 45-30 defeat. Varsity Prexies, who averaged 5' 10" in height, relied on speed to overcome their tall visitors.

Third consecutive victory was registered when the hoopsters journeyed to the Lake to take Ashtabula Harbor in hand, 40-22. The traditionally rough athletic events between the two teams proved definitely a thing of the past.

Whistle while you work

A Warren rally, raising the score to 26-25 during the last four minutes of the game at Farrell, gave hopes of winning; but the Night Riders capitalized on foul shots to forge ahead, 33-26.

Back in the win column, W. Weaver and L. Imburgia with 17 points each led the Laffertymen in outclassing Akron Kenmore to the tune of 60-45.

Warren pasted Youngstown North, 55-37, in a "free-for-all" for their fifth win in six starts. The Presidents maintained a leading score throughout the entire match.

Indians from Girard gave Hardingites a surprise scare in the next tilt. The locals, however, recovered to win, 42-37, with the help of L. Imburgia's spectacular display worth 26 points.

The Executives clouted Youngstown Woodrow Wilson, 39-15, on the hardwood of Youngstown South Field-House. Little trouble was experienced by the victors as they held Wilson to a single field goal in 21 minutes of play.

P. Spera and his Bulldog teammates from Canton McKinley used a tight defense and clicked on set shots to whip Warren, 47-35. McKinley's sharp shooting and smooth offense played an important part in the locals' second defeat.

Twenty-one field goals in 57 shots by a well-rounded Prexy quintet routed Youngstown Chaney cagers, 54-28. The game was rough with 49 personal fouls marked down for both teams.

A hotly contested battle that the Quakers of Salem cinched, 42-41, in the last minute of play set the Presidents down with their third loss. The Harding five had led throughout until the last of the fourth quarter.

Warren blasted Alliance, 58-36. Ten boys scored for the victors as they proved their ability to get "on the ball".

Mansfield Tygers piled up 64 points as they polished off the Red and White, who managed only 46. It was the Harding quintet's worst defeat in two years of cage action.

A mid-season slump was extended by the Presidents as they fell 48-34 at the hands of Canton Timkin's Trojans. A tight match kept the locals trailing only a point or two until the last quarter.

Personal fouls to the total of 39 were committed throughout the contest with Campbell Memorial, but Warren came out on top 63-34. E. Bevan, stellar forward, gained an impressive 14 counters.

For their eleventh triumph in 16 starts, the Harding five clipped Youngstown Rayen, 44-37. L. Imburgia sparked the attack with 18 points.

East Liverpool, runner-up for state basketball championship, proved just too much for Warren basketeers. The Potters, who registered a 58-36 victory, held a definite leading advantage.

Akron Central gave the Prexies a jolt by taking an early lead and holding it three quarters. The Red and White recovered sufficiently to trounce and outscore their visitors, 54-42, as the final buzzer sounded.

Trailing through most of the game, the Massillon Tigers staged an inspired rally during the last 20 seconds to overwhelm Warren, 59-56. Imburgia dropped in 22 points to break Venetta's record.

A nip and tuck halftime score with Youngstown Ursuline ahead, 23-22, meant nothing to the Presidents as they erased the lead to become victors, 56-54.

In the regular season final, Harding's basketeers were dropped 45-42 by Hubbard. The Eagles' attacks were too much for the Executives, who tasted their eighth loss of 21 starts.

TOURNAMENT REVIEW

In the first game of District-Tournament play, Warren drew Youngstown Rayen. A close battle ensued, with the lead changing constantly. With a minute left to play and the score tied at 35-35, L. Williams intercepted a Rayen pass. He flipped the ball to E. Bevan, who split the mesh, and the Executives had all they needed, 37-35.

Dragons from Niles were next to fall prey to the Presidents, 60-32. As the game got under way, Niles netmen found the mark twice before W. Weaver started Warren's march by dropping in a foul shot. Field goals by W. Weaver and L. Imburgia gave Harding a 5-4 advantage which they never lost throughout the remainder of the contest.

Salem, who defeated Warren during the regular season, found the improved Red and White too much for them. L. Imburgia's splendid faking and guarding of the giant Quaker, R. Pager, helped matters. W. Corbin's field goal as the bell rang cinched the contest, 37-34.

Although the Presidents maintained a 17-16 half-time lead, they bowed out in the tournament finals, 43-34, at the hands of Canton Lincoln. When the rangy Lions let loose with a third period rally, the Executives couldn't catch up.

He placed as a forward on the AP list and second-team center for the INS squad. CINDERPATH RESUME of 1946

The loss of L. Corbin, L. Reed, and J. Bollas through graduation and A. Williams to the Army left Harding High shorn of track material which had made it one of the toughest teams in the state in 1945. However, the 1946 team, composed mainly of sophomores, gave a good account of itself.

Warren failed to score a single point in the stiff competition at the Columbus State Meet, despite the fact that six boys, W. Corbin, C. Thompson, D. Thompson, D. Hughes, J. Blair, and R. Johnson made the trip. Since the first four of these boys were sophomores, they have two more years with the Harding High harriers.

In the state meet, Corbin failed to qualify in the 100 yard heat. After setting a new Warren record of 21.6 for the 220 sprint, qualifying for that event, he wound up seventh in the regular running.

The half-mile relay team of J. Blair, W. Corbin, D. Hughes, and C. Thompson finished sixth in their event. R. Johnson failed to place in the discus throw.

In the Salem NEO District competition, Warren captured fifth place. The Presidents took a second with the same half-mile relay team which traveled to Columbus. R. Johnson grabbed fourth in the discus heave, while W. Corbin was second in the century and first in the 220 yard dash. D. Thompson got one point for a fifth in the half-mile.

NINE-INNING REVIEW

Opening the season against a powerful Farrell outfit, the Prexy nine eked out a 2-1 victory in cool April weather behind the magnificent one-hit twirling of C. Sudzina.

Warren was forced to come from behind in a slugfest to defeat Leavittsburg, the dynamic TIA champion, 9-8. E. Lewis started on the mound for the Red and White, but he gave way to J. Shamrock in the second inning. Shamrock got credit for the win.

E. Lewis took the mound against Sharpsville for the second time in a row, but again assistance was needed, and P. Shafer trotted in to win a 4-3 victory.

For the third straight game, Warren came from behind, this time to take an 8-3 decision from Newton Falls. The Falls nine slapped W. Weaver around in the initial inning. J. Shamrock became the relief pitcher, and he got credit for the win.

The high spot of the season came in the Memorial game when T. Murray set the Red and Black down with no hits, while his teammates piled up three runs.

Liberty provided plenty of unexpected trouble by routing W. Weaver, but E. Lewis saved the day as the Presidents won, 11-10.

Traveling to Canton, the Prexies drew Youngstown East in the first game of the NEO Canton District Tournament. Despite fine pitching by P. Shafer, they lost, 4-0.

E. Lewis put Harding back in the win column by stopping Memorial, 5-4, after a shaky start. Warren dropped the final game of the season to Newton Falls, 4-3.

T. Lotz, L. Dunkerton, and D. Leihgeber, all seniors, provided most of the heavy artillery in the Prexy batting attack. Lotz, batting in the clean-up slot, ended the season with a beautiful .462 average. In 26 trips to the plate he knocked out 12 hits, including a homerun, triple, and two doubles. He crossed the plate with nine runs and batted in 12 for one of the finest efforts put forth by any Warren player in many years. Dunkerton finished with an excellent .391 average while the third member of this "murders' row," Leihgeber, hit .382.

Hitting the dust . . .

. . . P. Ulam slides safely home when the ball gets away from the Leavittsburg catcher.

TWO THINGS-

HOME AND SCHOOL: these two things have filled your life up to the present; now you are leaving school and will have to rub up against the raw and jagged edges of life. You will find that most of today's troubles are caused by folks who try to grab more than their share of things and give as little as possible in return; the result is that many of them get badly hurt. You can do a great deal to protect yourself and to promote your happiness by doing—

TWO OTHER THINGS-

FIRST—Be a GOOD NEIGHBOR. This means that you will be thoughtful, helpful, and unselfish.

SECOND—In doing a job see that you do just a little more than you are getting paid for.

These two things are sure fire and will really "deliver the goods"; they are the qualities that make an individual or a people TRULY GREAT.
